EIICHIRO ODA

Hello and thank you for taking our bus tour. We're heading toward the 100th chapter of One Piece. On your right, you can see the thumbs held up high. There's plenty more action and adventure ahead!

-Eiichiro Oda, 1999

Eiichiro Oda began his manga career at the age of 17, when his one-shot cowboy manga Wanted! won second place in the coveted Tezuka manga awards. Oda went on to work as an assistant to some of the biggest manga artists in the industry, including Nobuhiro Watsuki, before winning the Hop Step Award for new artists. His pirate adventure One Piece, which debuted in Weekly Shonen Jump in 1997, quickly became one of the most popular manga in Japan.

Yosaku

Genzo

"Red-Haired" Shanks

Nojiko

Arlong

Nami

A thief who once specialized in robbing pirates. Although she hates pirates, Luffy convinced her to be his navigator.

Monkey D. Luffy

Boundlessly optimistic and able to stretch like rubber, he is determined to become King of the Pirates.

Sanji

The kind-hearted cook (and ladies' man) whose dream is to find the legendary sea, the "All Blue."

Roronoa Zoro

A former bounty hunter and master of the "three-sword" fighting style. He plans to become the world's greatest swordsman!

Usopp

His penchant for tall tales is matched by his accuracy with a slingshot. His father, Yasopp, is a member of "Red-Haired" Shanks's crew.

Searching for Nami, Luffy and his crew head to Arlong Park, stronghold of the ferocious Fish-man Pirates, only to discover that Nami herself is one of them! They learn the story of Bell-Mère and the origin of Nami's hatred of pirates from Nami's stepsister, Nojiko, who also explains how Nami swallowed her hatred and went to work for Arlong, gathering loot to buy her village's freedom.

Moved by Nami's secret suffering, Luffy goes toe to toe with Arlong, but is hurled into the ocean! Sanji and the others fight and defeat Arlong's men and rescue Luffy. But they still have to contend with the most terrible foe of all—Arlong himself!

THE STORY OF ONE PIECE

Volume 11

Monkey D. Luffy started out as just a kid with a dream—and that dream was to become the greatest pirate in history! Stirred by the tales of pirate "Red-Haired" Shanks, Luffy vowed to become a pirate himself. That was before the enchanted Devil Fruit gave Luffy the power to stretch like rubber, at the cost of being unable to swim—a serious handicap for an aspiring sea dog. Undeterred, Luffy set out to sea, and recruited some crewmates: master swordsman Zoro, treasure-hunting thief Nami, lying sharpshooter Usopp, and Sanji, the high-kicking chef.
